OVERSEAS WOMEN WILL HONOR UNKNOWN HERO

Dr. Van Schaick to Give Address at Arlington Ceremony Tomorrow Afternoon.

When delegates to the Women's Overseas Service League hold their memorial services about the grave of the unknown soldier in the Arlington Amphitheater tomorrow afternoon they will pay tribute to the more than one hundred and fifty women who died in service overseas.

The service will take place at 3:30 o'clock. A prominent singer has been secured and Rev. John Van Schaick will deliver an address in honor of the women who gave their lives in foreign lands during the war.

Mrs. Oswald Chew, national president, will decorate the grave of the unknown soldier with the emblem of the Women's Overseas Service League. This emblem, which was recently adopted by the league, was designed by a member, Mrs. Anna Colman Ladd, the well known Boston sculptress, who made masks for mutilated soldiers in Paris. On the medallion is an ideal woman's head, shown in profile against the sea as a background. On one side is a camouflaged ship, typifying the common experience of crossing the water, and on the other side a lurking periscope, representing the dangers and hardships which attended service "over there."

The question of founding a diocesan home for the aged of the Episcopal faith will be discussed at a meeting at Trinity Diocesan Church, 226 Indiana avenue northwest, Monday night at 8 o'clock, when members from the several parishes will present plans for instituting the home. At present there is no institution of this character under the care of the Episcopal Church.

All churches in the diocese who are interested in the movement are invited to attend the meeting Monday night. It is hoped that some definite plan will be formulated for a co-operative movement among the various parishes looking to the accomplishment of this object.

GOSPEL MISSION HEAD TO BECOME EVANGELIST

Herbert W. Kline to Enter New Field After Fifteen Years' Rescue Service.

Herbert W. Kline, superintendent of the Gospel Mission, will retire from active rescue work Monday to enter a wider field of evangelism.

Mr. Kline entered the rescue mission work twenty-six years ago, with Col. Henry H. Hadley, at the St. Bartholomew's Mission, 42d street and 3d avenue, New York city. He was also associated with the famous Bowery Mission of New York city, while John H. Wymann was superintendent. Later he organized the Lafayette Hall Rescue Mission at Harrisburg, Pa., and for the past twelve years has been superintendent of the Gospel Mission of this city.

During the past year or more, Mr. Kline has been supervising the ministry of Christian healing. He has decided to devote all of his time to evangelism and Christian healing.

A large circle of friends and Christian workers, who are interested in establishing a full gospel tabernacle and a faith home, where the sick can live while waiting upon the Lord for healing, are going to join Mr. Kline in establishing such a work in Washington.

The parsonage of Wesley Chapel, 501 12th street northwest, has been purchased, and healing services will be conducted at regular intervals.

Mr. Kline has been successful in his children's creche, and a well planned city mission work will be conducted.
